

Store management can require any representative not meeting the Second and Third -Party dress code guidelines to leave the building to change into approved attire before returning to complete their scheduled tasks.

Shirts.

Solid colored polo or button-down shirt.

- Any solid color is acceptable, outside of Best Buy Human Blue (Red 0 Green 70 Blue 190) and resembling hues.
- Visible lanyard or name badge with company logo is required. Logo can also be represented on the polo or button-down shirt.

Pants/Skirts/Shorts.

Black Pants.

- Pants need to be clean with no rips, tears, stains or distressing.

Black Skirts.

- Solid black- or nude-colored tights if skirt is worn.
- Skirts must be knee length or longer.

Black or Blue Jeans.

- Jeans need to be clean with no rips, tears, stains or distressing.

Black or Denim (Blue or Black) Shorts.

- Shorts need to be clean with no rips, tears, stains, or distressing.
- No more than two inches above the knee.

Shoes.

Any neat and clean, closed toe, flat and comfy shoes are acceptable.

- Any color is acceptable.

What not to wear.

- Jeans with rips, tears or distressing.
- Anything too tight or too loose.
- Athletic wear or leggings.
- Shorts or capris.
- Sandals, flip-flops or mules.
- Hats or head coverings (other than those related to your religious beliefs).
- Cargo pants and corduroy